Jesus is risen-alleluia, alleluia!

Easter is not just another holiday, not just another time to host a brunch or party, we are celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ, and as the prayers in a funeral Mass remind us, just as we will share in the death of Jesus, so will we also share in his resurrection. This is why Easter is the biggest and most joyful thing we celebrate in our Catholic faith. This is where the saying "we are Easter people" really comes to life.

I pray you all had a great Lent, because when we do, it sets us up to have an even greater Easter. What makes for a great Lent? Well, drawing closer to Jesus through prayer, fasting and almsgiving is a start, but ultimately, as we hear on Ash Wednesday: "repent and believe in the Gospel." We are called to repentance, we are called to believe in and live the Gospel, but ultimately, we should be a little more converted in our hearts so to believe that we who share in a death like Jesus will also, one day, share in a resurrection like his- Eternal life is what we long for.

As we continue to celebrate the octave of Easter, leading up to Divine Mercy Sunday, let us continue to pray for conversion, trusting in His Divine Mercy. Please join us on Sunday, April 7th at 3:30 pm at the J St. church for a Holy Hour and to pray the chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Happy Easter!!

- Rev. Adrian Cisneros

Jesús ha resucitado: ¡aleluya, aleluya!

La Pascua no es simplemente un día festivo más, no es simplemente otro momento para organizar un almuerzo o una fiesta, estamos celebrando la resurrección de Jesucristo y, como nos recuerdan las oraciones en una misa fúnebre, así como compartiremos la muerte de Jesús, así participaremos también de su resurrección. Es por eso que la Pascua es lo más grande y alegre que celebramos en nuestra fe católica. Aquí es donde realmente cobra vida el dicho "somos gente de Pascua".

Oro para que todos hayan tenido una gran Cuaresma, porque cuando la tenemos, nos prepara para tener una Pascua aún mayor. ¿Qué hace que una Cuaresma sea excelente? Bueno, acercarse a Jesús a través de la oración, el ayuno y la limosna es un comienzo, pero en última instancia, como escuchamos el Miércoles de Ceniza: "arrepíentete y cree en el Evangelio". Estamos llamados al arrepentimiento, estamos llamados a creer y vivir el Evangelio, pero en última instancia, deberíamos convertirnos un poco más en nuestro corazón para creer que nosotros, que participamos de una muerte como la de Jesús, también, un día, participaremos de una resurrección como la suya: vida eterna es lo que anhelamos.

Mientras continuamos celebrando la octava de Pascua, antes del Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, sigamos orando por la conversión, confiando en Su Divina Misericordia. Únase a nosotros el domingo 7 de abril a las 3:30 pm en la Iglesia de la Calle J para la Hora Santa y rezar la coronilla de la Divina Misericordia.

¡¡Felices Pascuas!!

-Rev. Adrián Cisneros
