St. Stanislaus Partners with Hallow

St. Stanislaus has partnered with the Hallow app! We will have a great opportunity to pray together as a parish family even when we are not physically together using this prayer app. You will see several prayer challenges offered and later this year we will have a Hallow rep come to our parish to give an Advent mission in both English and Spanish. Please check out the QR codes to scan and join our St. Stanislaus parish Hallow page and start leading a Life in Prayer.

San Estanislao se asocia con Hallow

¡San Estanislao se ha asociado con la aplicación Hallow! Tendremos una gran oportunidad de orar juntos como familia parroquial — incluso cuando no estemos físicamente reunidos— utilizando esta aplicación de oración.

Encontrarán diversos desafíos de oración disponibles y, más adelante este año, recibiremos en nuestra parroquia a un representante de Hallow para impartir una misión de Adviento, tanto en inglés como en español. Por favor, utilicen los códigos QR para escanearlos, unirse a la página de Hallow de nuestra parroquia de San Estanislao y comenzar a vivir una vida de oración.

Laborers

“The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few.”

This excerpt from Matthew’s Gospel has become a catchphrase in the modern Church. We give ourselves vertigo with the amount of head-shaking we do over the much-lamented “decline in numbers.”

Which numbers, you ask? Well, take your pick — numbers of baptized Catholic children who continue to profess their faith in adulthood, numbers of registered parishioners, numbers of priests ordained each year. All are a fraction of what they were generations ago.

That last one — the priests — that’s a particular worry for us, isn’t it? So we pray, “Send us laborers, Lord! Make them holy. Make them earnest.”

And then we add, in the silence of our hearts: “Make them perfect.”

It’s no secret that part of the reason the pews are empty is because we often find it hard to love the Church if we find it hard to love a particular priest, a particular bishop, or a particular human representative of the Church.

Because that’s the thing about priests and bishops and all the laborers in the field: they are human. They are sinners. Just like you and me.

We must consider this: today’s Gospel lists the Apostles whom Jesus sent out in ministry to heal, console, and evangelize, and right at the end — like a record scratch — comes the name of Judas Iscariot, the betrayer. If ever a laborer failed in his work, it was Judas.

And surely, when he did, his fellow laborers were so demoralized and so disenchanted that they considered laying down their tools and leaving the harvest to wither and die.

But they did not, and we must not.

Without cost we have received, and without cost we are called to give.

So we labor on, for the day is drawing to a close, and the threshing time is near.

Trabajadores

"La cosecha es abundante, pero los trabajadores son pocos."

Este fragmento del Evangelio de Mateo se ha convertido en una frase característica en la Iglesia moderna. Nos provocamos vértigo con la cantidad de movimientos de cabeza que hacemos ante el tan lamentado "descenso de números".

¿Qué números, preguntas? Pues haz tu elección: números de niños católicos bautizados que continúan profesando su fe en la edad adulta, número de feligreses registrados, número de sacerdotes ordenados cada año. Todos son una fracción de lo que eran hace generaciones.

Eso último — los sacerdotes — es algo que nos preocupa especialmente, ¿verdad? Así que oramos: "¡Envíanos trabajadores, Señor! Hazlos santos. Hazlos sinceros."

Y luego añadimos, en el silencio de nuestros corazones: "Hazlos perfectos."

No es ningún secreto que parte de la razón por la que las bancas están vacías es porque a menudo nos cuesta amar a la Iglesia si nos cuesta amar a un sacerdote en particular, a un obispo en particular o a un representante humano particular de la Iglesia.

Porque eso es lo que pasa con los sacerdotes, obispos y todos los trabajadores del campo: son humanos. Son pecadores. Igual que tú y yo.

Debemos considerar esto: el Evangelio de hoy enumera a los apóstoles que Jesús envió en ministerio para sanar, consolar y evangelizar, y justo al final — como un arañazo de disco — aparece el nombre de Judas Iscariote, el traidor. Si alguna vez un obrero falló en su trabajo, fue Judas.

Y seguramente, cuando lo hizo, sus compañeros estaban tan desmoralizados y desencantados que consideraron dejar sus herramientas y dejar que la cosecha se marchitara y muriera.

Pero no lo hicieron, y no debemos hacerlo.

Sin costo hemos recibido, y sin costo estamos llamados a dar.

Así que seguimos trabajando, porque el día está llegando a su fin y la hora de la trilla se acerca.
