Children's Ministry Volunteers Needed

We're currently on the lookout for 4-5 English-speaking volunteers to help kick off a Children's Ministry program during our 10:00 a.m. English Mass.

We're hoping to find some dedicated folks who love working with children and want to lend a hand to our parish through this important ministry. This is a volunteer position, and while prior education or experience with children is a plus, it's not a requirement.

We'll be reviewing all the applications and getting in touch with those who pass the background check and screening process.

If you'd like to get an application and learn more, swing by the church office at 709 J Street in Modesto.

Kathleen Van Nes can also be reached at 209-241-6311 for more details.

Respect Life Corner: Catholic Consideration for Our Earthly Passing Part

(1)

We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God now, in our daily lives and decisions. For example, through prayer and regular reception of the sacraments, especially Confession and the Eucharist, we obtain grace to live in ever-deeper communion with God and with one another in lives of faith, charity, and justice.[2] We ask for Our Blessed Mother's help now, and we entrust ourselves to her further as we "surrender 'the hour of our death' wholly to her care." Rincón del Respeto por la Vida:

Consideraciones Católicas Sobre Nuestro tránsito terrenal (parte 1)

Nos preparamos para la vida eterna eligiendo amar y seguir a Dios ahora, en nuestra vida cotidiana y en nuestras decisiones. Por ejemplo, mediante la oración y la recepción frecuente de los sacramentos —especialmente la Confesión y la Eucaristía—, obtenemos la gracia para vivir en una comunión cada vez más profunda con Dios y entre nosotros, llevando una vida de fe, caridad y justicia.[2] Pedimos la ayuda de nuestra Santísima Madre desde ahora y nos encomendamos aún más a ella al «confiar plenamente "la hora de nuestra muerte" a su cuidado». Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 18:15-20

A few summers ago, my family had a big reunion. It included my parents, my four siblings, and all their many children. One of my favorite moments was simply watching my parents' contented faces as they took in all of us together, laughing, sharing food, singing, telling stories. They loved seeing their children happily together with each other.

That is something like the heart of God we see in today's Gospel message about Christian reconciliation. These verses come right after Jesus' parable of the lost sheep. He is not giving the disciples a cold formula for dealing with conflict. He is revealing the Father's longing for children who love and reconcile with each other. His heart aches when his children are divided and isolated. So when Jesus says, "Go and tell your brother his fault," He is not deputizing us as morality police. He is inviting us into his mission of reconciliation. When he adds, "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother," we glimpse the real goal. Not winning arguments, but reuniting a divided family.

These days, we often think religion is just between God and me. But the Father's dream is about a lively family, one in which His children forgive, gather, and rejoice together.

Lord Jesus, give me the courage to seek reconciliation where it is needed. Make my heart resemble the Father's heart, longing and working for unity among His children. Amen.

— Father John Muir

XXIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Mateo 18:15-20

Hoy la Liturgia nos anima a la corrección fraterna; es decir, nos alienta a corregir a las personas que obran mal. Este consejo parece ir contra la corriente actual de la sociedad, donde se cree que todo está permitido. Los padres tienen miedo de reprender a sus hijos y los maestros temen corregir a sus estudiantes, pues muchas veces responden con agresividad. El capítulo 18 del Evangelio de Mateo nos enseña cómo afrontar situaciones difíciles en la vida familiar y comunitaria. Siempre habrá conflictos; el reto está en cómo los afrontamos. Recordemos que somos responsables de quienes viven con nosotros y que, por derecho, deben ser felices.

Los pasos para corregir, de acuerdo con Jesús, son los siguientes: "Si tu hermano ha pecado, ve y háblale a solas para corregirlo. Si te escucha, habrás ganado a tu hermano". El segundo paso es este: "Si no te escucha, toma contigo a una o dos personas más, de modo que el caso se decida por la palabra de dos o tres testigos. Si se niega a escucharlos, informa a la asamblea" (Mateo 18:15-16). Luego vienen las palabras alentadoras de Jesús, que ayudan a suavizar las situaciones: "Pues donde están dos o tres reunidos en mi Nombre, allí estoy yo, en medio de ellos" (Mateo 18:20). Se necesita saber dialogar entre las personas, escuchar incluso cuando no se está de acuerdo, y tener mucha paciencia para lograr un crecimiento integral de cada persona.

¡Señor, ayúdanos a ser responsables unos de otros y a buscar siempre la justicia y el bien común!
